Name Change (Birth Certificate)

What you need to know:

If you are requesting to change your first, middle, or last name on your birth certificate, please refer to the Name Change (Court Order) section, as you will need to follow the legal name change process for Washington.

For any other type of name change to your birth certificate, such as correcting the spelling, moving the given middle name to the first part of the surname, or other changes, please refer to the chart on <https://doh.wa.gov/licenses-permits-and-certificates/vital-records/how-correct-record/changing-birth-certificates>.

Gender Marker Change (Birth Certificate)

What you need to know:

If you were born in Washington, you can change the sex designation on your birth certificate. A Washington birth certificate has three options for sex designation: M, F, and X. There are two ways to submit the gender marker to the WA DOH: by mail or in person.

You will need to complete the Request to Change Sex Designation on a Birth Certificate for an Adult form (DOH 422-134), which can be found here:

<https://doh.wa.gov/sites/default/files/legacy/Documents/Pubs/422-143-SexDesignationChangeAdult.pdf>. This document will need to be notarized. You can find a notary using this website: <https://www.washingtonnotary.com/find-a-notary>.

You can also change your name on your birth certificate at the same time, if you wish. You will need to provide the certified legal name change court order. Please see Name Change (Court Order) and Name Change (Birth Certificate) sections for more information.

To request copies of your updated birth certificates, you will need to complete the Birth Certificate Order Form (DOH 422-182):

<https://doh.wa.gov/sites/default/files/legacy/Documents/Pubs/422-182-BirthCertificateOrderForm.pdf>.

Cost:

There is no fee to amend the birth certificate record; however, it is $25 for each certified copy requested.

Gender Marker Change (Driver's License / State ID)

What you need to know:

You can change your gender designation on your Washington driver's license / state ID. A Washington driver's license / state ID has three options for sex designation: M, F, and X. There are two ways to submit the gender marker to the WA DOH: by mail or in person for both regular and enhanced forms.

For in-person requests, you will need to make an appointment at a driver's licensing office, which can be found at <https://fortress.wa.gov/dol/extdriveses/ESP/NoLogon/>. You will need to bring your current license or ID card with you to this appointment.

For by mail requests, you will need to complete the Change of Cender Designation Request form:

https://dol.wa.gov/forms/view?combine=&field\_topic\_target\_id>All&field\_language\_target\_id>All&field\_form\_id\_value=520043 and mail it to the address found on the form. If you are getting an enhanced, also known as a Real ID, you will have to make an appointment at a driver's licensing office. If not, you can log into License Express (<https://secure.dol.wa.gov/home/>) to get your new cards online.

Cost:

If you are only updating your gender designation, your new card will be free. If you need to update more than your gender, or are updating to a Washington ID from another state, an additional fee will apply. Please see <https://dol.wa.gov/driver-licenses-and-permits/driver-licensing-fees#updatecard> for more information on these fees.
